Concurrent Enrollment Application for Admission to Fort Lewis College

Section 6: Agreement

This document confirms the above-named student's enrollment in the Fort Lewis College (FLC) Concurrent Enrollment (CE) program. It must be signed by the student and the student's parent or legal guardian.

1. The student confirms that they have received advice and counsel about participating in the CE program from their high school counselor.
2. The student is encouraged to apply for their College Opportunity Fund (COF) stipend for all eligible credits for the term(s) indicated above, and all subsequent CE semesters. More information can be found at <https://www.fortlewis.edu/studentbilling/>. The student is required to pay the difference if they choose not to use their COF stipend.
3. The student authorizes their school district to release their State Assigned Student Identification number (SASID) to Fort Lewis College for the COF process.
4. If the student is under the age of 18, the parent(s) or legal guardian is responsible for paying all FLC student fees associated with their CE classes. If 18 years of age or older, the student is responsible for paying all FLC student fees associated with their CE classes. Additional information can be found at <https://www.fortlewis.edu/studentbilling/>.
5. If the student is under age 18 and withdraws from a course between the first day of classes and the census date, their parent(s) or legal guardian is responsible for paying the pro-rated tuition and fees for that course. If 18 years of age or older, the student is responsible for paying the pro-rated tuition and fees for that course. Additional information can be found at <https://www.fortlewis.edu/studentbilling/>.
6. If the student is under age 18, and receives a grade of "F", "CW", "AW", "SW" or, an "Incomplete" for a course, the parent(s) or legal guardian may be required to repay the sponsoring school district for that course. Additional information can be found at <https://www.fortlewis.edu/studentbilling/>.
7. The student must meet the same course prerequisites and expectations as all Fort Lewis College students, as noted in the Fort Lewis College Catalog and course syllabi. Access to Math and English courses may require additional placement testing.
8. The student is NOT eligible for federal or state financial aid, or institutional scholarships funded with Fort Lewis College general fund dollars.
9. All grades received for CE courses are part of the student's permanent record. As such, those grades will appear on the student's official Fort Lewis College transcript.
10. In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, with their signature below, the student grants permission to Fort Lewis College to report absences, disciplinary issues, CE course grades (final and in-progress), transcripts, and class schedules, as available, to the above-named high school for all CE courses.
11. The student MUST submit their immunization records to the Fort Lewis College Health Center. The student will have a registration and transcript hold on their account until the Health Center receives these records.
